G 6

I wish I was eighteen years old. If I were eighteen I would make my family proud because. I would join the Military. I would protect my country from terrorism. I would become a stronger invader. I would learn a new skill from being in the army, I would also get money for college. Then I would become nineteen then twenty, I would probably keep getting older till I became a old man in a wheel chair. I probably would have gotten married by then, I bet I would probably have a couple of kids. I know even when I'm old I will know my wish was that I was eighteen years old. I would also remember the time that I had. I would also remember the bad times, I had a lot even now there wasn't any bad times.

Score Point: 2

This response is considered flawed. A low degree of proficiency is reflected. The writer identifies a special wish (to be eighteen years old) and provides reasons for having this wish (I would join the military, I would protect my country, I would learn a new skill, and I would get money for college). Although there are errors in writing conventions, they do not impede communication. However, the writer simply provides a list of key ideas with very little development.
